EWS767 · SHIPPING GUIDE

What we can and can't pack

Air carriers (UPS, USPS, FedEx) will not fly certain everyday items. Check this list before you order so nothing is held up.

Cannot go by air

Aerosols and spray cans
Deodorant spray, hairspray, body spray, spray paint, insect spray, cooking spray

Perfume and cologne
Alcohol-based fragrances and body mists

Nail polish and remover
Flammable liquids

Paint, glue, and solvents
Most glues, adhesives, thinners, and oil-based paint

Loose batteries and power banks
Lithium batteries sold on their own. Batteries installed in a device may be accepted

Lighters, matches, and fuel
Lighter fluid, torches, camping fuel, gasoline

Cleaning and pool chemicals
Bleach, pool chlorine, drain cleaner, fertilizer

Alcohol
Wine, spirits, and beer

Compressed gas and extinguishers
Gas cylinders, fire extinguishers, air bags

Damaged or recalled batteries
Never accepted by air under any circumstances

Not sure about an item? Message us before you buy. Sea shipping has its own rules, and we will help you check with your freight forwarder.

Items we do not pack at all

- Televisions
- Firearms and ammunition
- Explosives and fireworks
- Illegal drugs
- Tobacco and vapes
- Live animals, plants, seeds

This is a general guide. Carrier and customs rules change, so we confirm each order. Importing goods into your destination country, including duties and clearance, is the customer's responsibility.
